

Zoroastrian Center of North Texas

Inauguration Prayers

With the blessings of Ahura Mazda, the Zoroastrian Association of North Texas now has a home for all Zoroastrians and their families.

The time has come to open our doors!

We request your presence for the inauguration prayers and ceremonies for our Zoroastrian Center of North Texas at 1605 Lopo Road, Flower Mound, Texas 75028

The Zoroastrian Center of North Texas will be inaugurated with the prayers, ceremonies and traditions befitting the opening of a Zoroastrian home.

Please join us for the following ceremonies:

Friday, April 29, 2011 - Vendidad Prayers, 12:00 am (Thursday night)

Saturday, April 30, 2011 - Baj Ceremony, 9:00 am

Saturday, April 30, 2011 - Jashan Ceremony, 4:00 pm, dinner thereafter

Please RSVP by April 22, 2011 if you will be attending the Jashan Ceremony and if you plan to stay for dinner thereafter. Volunteers are preparing an evening meal.
Please call or email Delnaaz Irani at 972 398-8673 or delo.irani@sbcglobal.net.

There will be no parking on the ZCNT parking lot.

We request that passengers be dropped off at the center, and drivers proceed to one of the 2 parking areas below:
