A Condolence Message!

Cyrus Bulsara, born September 25, 1947 in Bombay, India to Rustom and Korshed Bulsara, passed away surrounded by the love of his family in Plano, TX on October 29, 2019 following a heart attack.

Cyrus was a devoted husband to Rashnè who predeceased him six years ago. They were always happy to spend time with their daughters Farah Bulsara Speer (Matthew Speer) and Avaan Lieberman (Michael Lieberman) and their four grandchildren Zarina, Mitchell, Zachary and Ethan.

A Zoroastrian service will be held at 4:00 pm CT on Tuesday, Nov. 5th, 2019 at Turrentine-Jackson-Morrow Funeral Home, 2525 Central Expressway North (Ridgeview Exit 38) in Allen, Texas.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the American Heart Association or the Zoroastrian Association of North Texas, both organizations he supported for many years.
The holidays are a time of giving! We give lots of different things to lots of different people. We give presents to our loved ones, we give kisses under the mistletoe, we give greetings to our friends and smiles to our neighbors.

As we get ready to enjoy all the fun and festivities, consider another type of giving, charitable giving. Apart from the obvious reasons, more and more studies are finding that charitable giving is contagious! Please consider giving this holiday season; not only will you help others, but you will feel happier about yourself and this will encourage others to give and they will feel happier too!

Spare a thought for families in need. There are so many children that find this time of year especially difficult. Please help us serve our community by providing the most basic necessity a child needs - food!

Our box is in the usual place in the Zant Center Library for your convenience. We can also pick up donations from you.

Take a little time out to help make these kids’ weekends wonderful!

Thank You!

“Helping a person will not change the world, but it will change the world for that one person.”
